

Security Dog Validation Standards

PART 3 – Signature Odour Scent Work (Narcotic or Explosives).

-	19
-
-	21
-
-

Part 1 Security Dog Validation Standards:

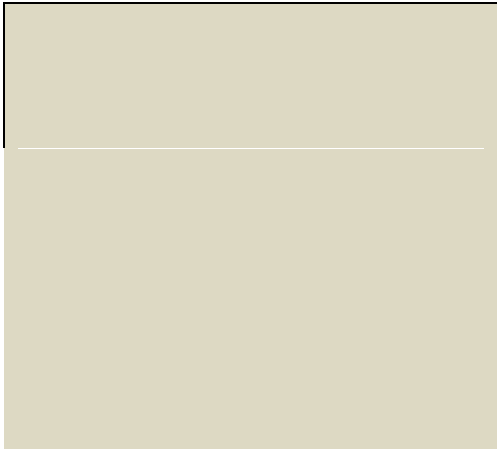

Overview: Justice Institute administration of Dog Standard Validation Examinations:

Validation Tests:

two distinct profiles:

- f* Protection (including Human Scent detection)
- f* Signature Odour Scent Work (Narcotic or Explosives).

Description of Validation Routine:

sit

2

2. Protection Profile

The handler recognizes & reads the dog's change of behaviour to the human scent
Proper search patterning of the area utilizing the wind to benefit the dog's ability

Negative Result:

4. Traffic Sureness Test

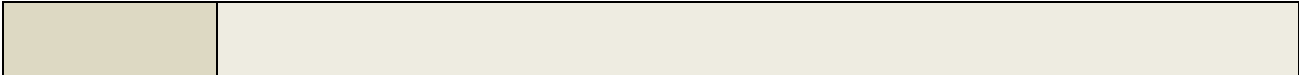

The dogs' conduct will be examined to determine if the dog's disposition is reliable and trustworthy in situations encountered in the Security Worker's duties.

in the Security Worker's environment.

-
-
-
-

-

-
-
-

This is an on line with trainin

Part 3 - Signature Odour Scent Work Standards

1. Narcotic Detection

on the handler's ability to:

Read the "change in behaviour" of the dog as it enters the scent cone

Read the dog's "specific alert" (passive or aggressive response) displayed by the dog

And the Handler delivers the reward in a timely manner to complete the "ALERT" or "FIND".

Scenario Site Include but not limited to:

¾

- - -

-

Positive Results:

The dog's ability to detect the signature odour of the aid -

-
-
-
-
- SEMTAX "A" & "H"
-
-
- -

Elements of Validation:

-
-

Positive Results:

The dog's ability to detect the signature odour of t -