GENDER IDENTITY TERMINOLOGY

Gender– includes two related concepts:

Gender Identity which refers to a person's internal and individual experience of gender; and Gender Expression which describes how a person publicly presents their gender including behaviour and outward appearance. A person's current gender may differ from the gender a person as assigned at birth (male or female) and may differ from what is indicated on their current legal documents. A person's gender may change over time.

Cisgender– people whose sex assigned at birth is the same as their gender

Transgender– people whose sex assigned at birth is different from their gender.

Woman– people whose current gender is woman. This includes cisgender and transgender people who are women.

Man– people whose current gender is man. This includes cisgender and transgender people who are men.

Non-Binary Gender – people whose current gender is not exclusively a woman or a man. This includes people who do not have one gender, have no gender, are gender fluid, or are ~~Spivak~~ Spivak.
